Data Description for cal-fire-9-10-2020

Variable Names with short description

- incident_name: The name of the fire
- incident_is_final: Whether the fire has been put out as of September 10th, 2020.
- incident_date_last_update: The date data on the fire was last updated.
- incident_date_created: The date the fire was first entered into the database.
- incident_administrative_unit: The administrative unit for the fire.
- incident_administrative_unit_url: The url for the administrative unit.
- incident_county: The county the fire was in.
- incident_location: The location of the fire.
- incident_acres_burned: The number of acres the fire burned.
- incident_containment: The containment of the fire, in a percentage.
- incident_control: Unsure what this represents
- incident_cooperating_agencies: Any cooperating agencies helping to manage the fire.
- incident_longitude: The longitude of the fire
- incident_latitude: The latitude of the fire
- incident_type: The type of incident
- incident_id: ID of the fire
- incident_url: URL for the status page of the fire
- incident_date_extinguished: The date and time the fire was fully extinguished
- incident_dateonly_extinguished: The date the fire was fully extinguished
- incident_dateonly_created: The date the fire was started
- is_active: TRUE means the fire is active, FALSE means the fire is not active
- calfire_incident: Is the fire being managed by california fire management.
- notification_desired: These are all FALSE, unsure what it represents.